

Uruguayan fiber optic switch manufacturer

Article Overview

There are no confirmed fiber optic switch manufacturers based in Uruguay according to current sources.

Currently, no web results or industry listings identify a fiber optic switch manufacturer headquartered in Uruguay. Most recognized manufacturers are located in North America, Europe, and Asia, such as GLSUN, Agiltron, Opneti, and OZ Optics . These companies produce a wide range of optical switches, including mechanical, MEMS 1xN, and magneto-optical switches, with features like low insertion loss, fast switching speed, and compact size suitable for telecom and industrial applications .

Alternatives for Uruguayan Users

- International Suppliers: Companies like GLSUN (China), Agiltron (USA), and Opneti (location unspecified) offer global shipping and can provide custom optical switch solutions .
- Regional Distributors: Latin American distributors may carry products from major manufacturers, allowing local procurement and support.
- Custom Solutions: Some companies, such as GLSUN, offer customized optical switches tailored to specific network or industrial requirements .

Recommendations

- If a local Uruguayan manufacturer is required, consider contacting telecom equipment distributors in Uruguay who may assemble or integrate optical switches...
